

THE LOST CHILDREN OF BABYLON – BEWARE THE ZEITGEIST LYRICS

yo

hook (2x)

take a look through the window of the days zeitgeist past present spirits of the age transcend times take a look at the page

past tense minds see their futures in their grave a generation raised on fastfood took the poison from the gl-ss tube biochip ingredients that p-ss through ya ventricles coagulate into antenna receive the frequency from the valley of the henna the spell shan't intangibly they help them to handle me abandon the ident-ty impose that nativity machiavelli strategies in social captivity disappear from the grid survivors rather visibly p-ssport locked on the radar so you can't stray far before the satellite locate ya can't deviate the system rehabilitate ya can't self navigate, they polluted your human nature rejuvenate your thunder arise from your slumber fraudulent surrounds us haven't you ever wondered why evil evolves rich and righteous remains poor you need a reminder? they kicking in ya door

hook (2x)

take a look through the window of the days
